Melody

1. I have a door I never o - pen and I polish it with a cloth that has no oth-er work and a thumb that has no oth-er ring Nothing is behind it

That is not the reason The reason is smaller and I keep it Somebo-dy gave me the key years a-go and I put it somewhere safe safe being a word for a draw - er It is on-ly a door I say On-ly wood on-ly oil on-ly the sound it would make if I turned it on - ly a room be-ing a room So I pol-ish the han - dle That is all that it is A hand keeping bus-y at the place where it ends The door does not ask me for an-y - thing I stand in the hallway and I am not waiting The cloth goes round The brass comes up

Nothing is behind it Nothing has to be I have a door I never o - pen and I polish it
